

Italian Night

Brevard County Memorial Veteran's Center

September is one of the four meeting nights of socialization, reconnecting with old friends and meeting new ones. Plan on being there on!

Italian Night

Tuesday

September 5, 2023

Brevard County Memorial
Veteran's Center

6:00 PM: Social Time

6:30 PM:

Let's Eat

iTALIAN

Taste Of ITALY

The evening's format:

- The club will provide tableware and the usual beverages (donations for the wine and beer gratefully accepted).
- Each attending family group is asked to bring a favorite Italian dish which can include casseroles, appetizers, or desserts.
- New this year will be a “silent auction” of several items from the storage unit that the club no longer needs.
- Scrapbooks from the past will be available for members to remove favorite pictures before the books are recycled.

- Meeting events chairman, Robin Courtney, has scheduled an impressive list of speakers for the business meetings.
- In August, a record number of 33 members and 22 guests attended the presentation by Rear Admiral (Ret) Wayne Justice.

- The October speaker will feature the Brevard Zoo spokesman who will reveal plans for the new Aquarium at the Port.
- Once again, we are inviting friends and members of other boating organizations to hear about this exciting venture.
- Special thanks to Robin for her continued successes.

Cocoa Village Elks Club complete with holiday decorations, table set-up and plenty of free parking.

- Dave Johnson, DJ from previous years, has been hired.

Members are encouraged to take a stroll through the garden in front of the BCMVC. Here you will find two benches with our logo, updated through the efforts of P/C Jay Longway.

Our club continues to support the center through monthly donations of food, personal items, bottled water, and the holiday Toys for Tots collection.
