How fortunate we are to have Mark Casburn with Fractional Yacht Management, Inc. as our guest speaker on Tuesday, 06 January. He will talk about two topics: 1. The Air Force Search and Rescue Service and 2. The Fractional Shared Yacht concept. This promises to be an interesting program. Please try to attend.

Mark and Michelle Anderson AP Program Chairmen

The Tuesday 02 December general meeting was more like a party. The members brought refreshments and then sang Christmas Carols to the Karaoke. It was festive ; it was fun and everyone had a very, merry time.

Chairman Agnes Bond, helped by Barbara Pennington, Ron Bond, Doris Valentine and Susan Kneeland are to be commended for the work they have done in creating an elegant Holiday Dinner Dance for the enjoyment of the CBPS members.

December 6th was an evening to be remembered. Thank y'all.

I shall take boating courses to add to my boating knowledge.

I'll join in CBPS boating activities when I can.

I'll follow all safe boating practices for the safety of myself, my passengers, and other boaters.

I'll help the squadron by doing Vessel Safety Checks and other activities when called upon.

I'll donate blood because the blood bank is in short supply.

NEW YEAR'S DAY -- HOW DID IT COME ABOUT ?

"Happy New Year!" Folks will be saying it for at least the first couple of weeks as a new year gets under way, but the day celebrated as New Year's Day in modern America was not always January 1.

ANCIENT NEW YEARS

The celebration of the new year is the oldest of all holidays. It was first observed in ancient Babylon about 4000 years ago. In the years around 2000 BC, the Babylonian New Year began with the first New Moon (actually the first visible crescent) after the Vernal Equinox (first day of spring).

January 1 has no astronomical nor agricultural significance. It is purely arbitrary. The Babylonian new year celebration lasted for eleven days. Each day had its own particular mode of celebration, but it is safe to say that modern New Year's Eve festivities pale in comparison.

The Romans continued to observe the new year in late March, but their calendar was continually tampered with by various emperors so that the calendar soon became out of synchronization with the sun. In order to set the calendar right, the Roman senate, in 153 BC, declared January 1 to be the beginning of the new year. But tampering continued until Julius Caesar, in 46 BC, established what has come to be known as the Julian Calendar. It again established January 1 as the new year.

Although in the first centuries AD the Romans continued celebrating the new year, the early Catholic Church condemned the festivities as paganism. New Years has been celebrated as a holiday by Western nations for only about the past 400 years.

NEW YEAR TRADITIONS

Some traditions of the season include making New Year's resolutions. That tradition also dates back to the early Babylonians. The early Babylonian's most popular resolution was to return borrowed farm equipment.

Lt Popular modern resolutions might include the promise to lose weight or to quit smoking. The tradition of using a baby to signify the new year was begun in Greece around 600 BC. It was their tradition at that time to celebrate their god of wine, Dionysus, by parading a baby in a basket, representing the annual rebirth of that god as the spirit of fertility. Early Egyptians also used a baby as a symbol of rebirth.

The use of an image of a baby with a New Years banner as a symbolic representation of the new year was brought to early America by the Germans. They had used the effigy since the fourteenth century.

The song, "Auld Lang Syne," playing in the background, is sung at the stroke of midnight in almost every English-speaking country in the world to bring in the new year. At least partially written by Robert Burns in the 1700's, it was first published in 1796 after Burns' death. Early variations of the song were sung prior to 1700 and inspired Burns to produce the modern rendition. An old Scotch tune, "Auld Lang Syne" literally means "old long ago," or simply, "the good old days."

You can find much interesting information about New Year customs on the web .

Days of Auld Lang Syne-The Translated Lyrics Traditionally Sung on New Years Eve

*Should old friends be forgotten
and never remembered
Should old friends be forgotten
and the days they shared together*

Chorus

*For days now in the past, my dear
For days now in the past
We'll drink a toast of kind remembrance
For days now in the past*

*You can pay for your pint tankard
and I will pay for mine
We'll drink a toast of kind remembrance
For days now in the past*

*We two have run about the hillsides and pulled wild daisies
but now we are far apart in distance
From those days now in the past*

*We two have paddled in the stream from morning until noon
but oceans now lie between us
since those days now in the past*

*So take my hand, my trusty friend and give me your hand
and we will take a hearty drink together
In memory of those days now in the past*

Robert Burns forwarded a copy of the original song to the British Museum with the remark, "The following song, an old song, of the olden times, and which has never been in print, nor even in manuscript until I took it down from an old man's singing, is enough to recommend any air." -A complete history of this lovely classic is available on the web.

ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER'S REPORT

The New Year is fast approaching and I don't know where the time went. Soon we will be having the Change of Watch, scheduled for February 29, 2004, and we get to do it all over again. I'm looking forward to the new year. We'll be forming new committees and will seek volunteers and chairpersons to staff them. Those who served the squadron in these capacities this past year have done a great job! I sincerely appreciate the support of Lts. Doris Valentine, Ann and Johnny McCandless S, Gary Kingrea S, Randy Johnson P, Pat Clay, John Lynn P, Marilyn Flanigan P, Agnes Bond AP, Mark and Michelle Anderson AP, and P/D/C Fred Adame SN, throughout the year.

While on the subject, wasn't the Holiday Dinner/Dance a grand event? Seventy were in attendance and were thoroughly entertained by the music of Marion Scott and his band. Does anyone know the name of the dance(s) Ann McCandless did? The squadron appreciates all the hard work Lt. Agnes Bond did to create a memorable evening..

We've decided to take a break and postpone the Coral Bay Restaurant Rendezvous for January 24, 2004. You'll hear more about our future plans.

Lt/C Bud Miller, JN

SEO REPORT Lt/C Howard Bernbaum SN

In summary, 2003 was a fair year for the SEO department. We offered courses in Sail 102, Seamanship 101/102, Engine Maintenance, Marine Electronics, Instructor Development, Cruise Planning, and Weather 101. All told 46 students passed these courses plus we are waiting results for the 8 Weather students. That's the good news. The bad news is that we did not complete Piloting, Advanced Piloting, nor even offer a JN and N class, the latter 2 for lack of students.

As a reminder, we would like to schedule the following courses so please contact Howard Bernbaum 452-0320 or Les Tribout 636-5811.

|                    |          |             |
| Junior Navigation  | Monday   | January 5   |
| Seamanship         | Monday   | January 5   |
| Advanced Piloting  | Thursday | February 12 |
| Engine Maintenance | Thursday | February 19 |

As a reminder, Weather 102 resumes in January.

The SEO department wishes everyone a happy and healthy new year.

Everyone knows Gainesville is home to the University of Florida, but bet you didn't know Gainesville began as a settlement in the early 1800s on the banks of the Hogtown Creek, a small creek that still runs through the center of town. Let's turn the clock back to the 1800s for the evening - come join us and listen to Dixieland Jazz while we ride the Riverboat down Hogtown Creek, as folks did in early Gainesville.

Friday afternoon, 5 March, registration opens at 3 pm, followed by our Hospitality Room from 4-6. We'll have a great Riverboat Cruise dinner later that evening - cash bar opens at 6:30, with dinner at 7pm. Come dressed as a riverboat gambler, a southern belle or gentleman, or just someone who loves Dixieland jazz! And you don't want to miss the costume 'competition' for the coveted 'Pink Flamingo'!! There'll be Blackjack, Poker, Craps, Roulette, & the Sounds of Dixieland Jazz throughout the evening!

Saturday morning starts with a free continental breakfast for hotel guests, with the Conference registration desk opening at 8 am. The council meeting, department and special interest workshops, and the Conference session will be conducted throughout the day, with a great Deli Buffet planned for lunch. Tours for spouses and guests not attending the meetings will be available to attractions in the Gainesville area or to Cedar Key. After the Conference business is completed, the Hospitality Room will open again at 4 pm, followed by a cash bar and banquet dinner at 6:30 pm.

Sunday morning, 8:30 am, will be the Farewell Breakfast, hosted by the St. Johns' N-Club. All conference attendees are invited to come for breakfast and enjoy the program. The Guest Speaker for the program is Danny McKnight, a dynamic and entertaining speaker, who will talk about his role in the "Blackhawk Down" incident. Danny was involved in "Blackhawk Down", and was a consultant on the movie. He is currently a Homeland Security Officer in Brevard County. The Holiday Inn West Conference Center is conveniently located 1/2 mile west of I-75, Exit 387, in Gainesville. ### ONE CAN NEVER OWN TOO MANY COOKBOOKS.

"By Land or By Sea", the new USPS National Cookbook, is now on sale at the special pre-release price of $20 including shipping and handling. (A real bargain !)

This is much more than just another cookbook. It was conceived by the USPS National Auxiliary Advisory with a dual purpose, to increase organizational exposure and visibility and to be used as a guidebook. In addition to the best recipes of USPS, the cookbook contains ideas for organizational fund raisers, special events/crafts, educational course offerings, civic service opportunities, brief histories of USPS and the auxiliaries, and more. For more information on "By Land or By Sea" and ordering information, visit the new website at: www.usps.org/national/auxiliary/cookbook

Interested members can also find links to the USPS National Cookbook on the USPS member's home page as well as the Auxiliary Advisory's home

USPS 2004 ANNUAL MEETING HOLDS EXPO

Friday, 16 Jan., will see a ballroom of the Omni Rosen Hotel turned into an exhibit hall which USPS has dubbed "EXPO." EXPO will feature a room full of booths representing each of the many National committees: Education Courses, Cooperative Charting, Vessel Safety Checks, Membership, Public Relations, Marketing, The Ensign, the Auxiliaries (cook book) and more. They are there to answer your questions, offer help and advice and even listen to your suggestions for improvement. This year, thanks to Chief Commander Ted Smith, SN, there will also be booths representing the Coast Guard, Corps of Engineers, Operation BoatSmart and other "outside" organizations. We also hope to have some brand new boats on exhibit. You are free to wander around till your heart's, or your feet's, content. Then stay and rejuvenate at the free District 23 cocktail party in the afternoon. Hoping to see you there.
