This event will take you to several restaurants and bars. You will have time to sit and have a drink or appetizer at multiple places as this is not a race or a timed event. You will pick up an envelope at each location with a playing card and the best poker hand wins. You will have clues to get you from one place to the next and have an emergency envelope in case you cannot figure out the clues. You can use your cell phone to help with the clues but try to solve without for more fun. We will end up at a restaurant.
